Job Overview

We are looking for a full-time bookseller at our Prince Street location to manage our children's book sections. The children's bookseller needs a deep knowledge of kids books, from board books to YA, and will be responsible for the kids sections, including curation, upkeep, tidying, and organization; pulling returns based on sales data; creating and merchandising displays; handselling to readers of all ages; and more. Our booksellers are customer-facing professionals who handle duties such as book recommendations, restocking and shelving, running the cash register, info stations and phones, as well as general store maintenance and upkeep. The children's section manager may also be asked to open and/or close the store, as well as process web orders, among other responsibilities.

Additional Responsibilities

- Customer service: gift wrapping, checkout, answering phones, customer returns, field special customer requests, responding to customer complaints in absence of a manager.
- Handling store opening and closing (i.e. being a "keyholder").
- Day-to-day store upkeep; including display and table upkeep including the bestseller wall.
- Shelving and handing special orders.
- Processing web orders for either in-store pickup or shipping out.
- Pulling and sorting returns.
- Attending staff training and company correspondence,
- Assorted data entry.
- Any other duties reasonably requested by management.

Qualifications:

- Knowledge of the contemporary reading landscape, particularly books for children
- Interested in providing a positive experience for our customers, including an enthusiasm for recommending books
- Previous bookstore experience a plus
- Must be able to lift 40lb boxes
- Flexibility to work nights and weekends
- IBIDie experience a plus

Perks:

- 40% Discount at McNally Jackson Books and Goods for the Study
- Health Insurance (dental and vision)
- Paid Time off
